INVITATION

Dear ISDS Friends,

We are delighted and grateful to bring you this very special 42nd Annual Meeting of the International Society for Aesthetic and Oncologic Dermatologic Surgery (ISDS) in the magnificent city of Rio de Janeiro / Brazil.

Our venue, The Fairmont Hotel, sits right at the Copacabana Beach, one of the most famous beaches of the world. Inside the hotel is providing a tranquil environment for learning and a lovely setting for our evening cocktail reception. Rio de Janeiro is truly the perfect place for our ISDS friends to meet again and exchange high level expert knowledge from around the world in Aesthetic Dermatologic Surgery and Oncologic Dermatologic Surgery.

The ISDS is the only international organization solely dedicated to physician education in both oncologic and aesthetic dermatologic surgery. Our meeting program consists of content in both the oncologic and aesthetic domains. The program includes unsponsored content for which participants will be granted with Continuing Medical Education (CME) credit, as well as sponsored breakfasts and luncheons, and sponsored parallel workshops where our industry partners can showcase new drugs, products and technologies.

We are confident that you will find the academic program to be of the highest caliber with outstanding world-class experts discussing the latest developments in cutting-edge patient care. Our plenary speakers are not to be missed. With an expected attendance of 600 - 800 dermatologic surgeons including 150 expert faculty from over 20 countries, we believe this ISDS Annual Meeting will be one to remember!

The ISDS has remained vibrant during the pandemic by producing a series of outstanding webinars in cutaneous surgical oncology and aesthetic procedural dermatology, and developing member certification programs in aesthetic procedural dermatology and in margin-controlled oncologic surgery (Mohs and Tübingen techniques). We are creating volunteer travel opportunities to train dermatologists globally in aesthetic dermatology, as well as in excisional surgery, and to treat patients in underserved regions. You can learn more about these opportunities as well as ISDS' mentorship and observership programs and online CME offerings via our website (www.isdsworld.com).

We trust that our Meeting will be a unique opportunity for your company to promote itself and connect with dermatologic and aesthetic surgeons by choosing one of the below sponsorship opportunities. We are offering 3-year partnerships via which our top supporters are part of the ISDS' Industry Advisory Council (ISDSIAC).

This Council meets twice yearly with the ISDS Board of Directors and Industry Relations Workgroup to discuss topics of mutual interest and collaboration.

We look forward to welcoming you to Rio de Janeiro and beginning our partnership to advance the world's skin health!
